

This is to urge that the FCC do nothing to compromise New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law. I have found the law to be most effective in decreasing (but not yet totally eliminating) unwanted solicitations by telephone. It would be ironic if the FCC took negative action on a State law that better accomplishes the TCP Act's goals.